EASTERN DATES TO MAY 15

WASHINGTON CITY

Congressional

WASHINGTON, May 14.—In the Senate the bill to establish a District Court in the Indian Territory was discussed. An amendment offered by Nye, designed to reorganize the whole Territory, was under consideration until the expiration of the morning hour.

The bill to amend the enforcement act was resumed, the pending question being on Trumbull's amendment adding to the amnesty bill. After the discussion and rejection, Trumbull amended his amendment adding the supplemental civil rights bill, which then came up. He explained that his purpose was to discover who were the real friends of the measure and who were merely using it for the purpose of defeating amnesty. The amendment to the amnesty bill was rejected by 22 to 23. The bill was then amended in some important particulars and passed by 36 to 17, the bill to continue in force until 1873.

The act authorizing the President to suspend the writ of habeas corpus was then taken up and laid aside.

The Conference report on the deficiency bill was taken up and dismissed till recess.

The evening session of the Senate was devoted to the consideration of the bill from the Committee on Commerce.

A number of bills which are of a local character were passed in the House.

The President's message relative to emigrants was received. The Representatives of New York denied that emigrants landing at New York were subject to ill treatment, and expressed a regret that the President had issued a document calculated to discourage emigration. Bingham and Butler defended the message as necessary, wise and just. The matter was referred to the Committee on Commerce.

In the House, the resignation of Brooks was presented.

The bill modifying the pension laws passed.

The Senate amendments to the naval appropriation bill were disposed of.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the tariff bill. Beatty offered a large number of amendments in succession to the item of wool, all of which were voted down unanimously. The item in relation to the manufacture of iron was amended, omitting the words "excepting cotton machinery."

Dawes moved to include in the second section all sized printing paper, so as to reduce the present rate of duty 10 per cent. The word "sized" was struck out and the item as amended adopted. An unsuccessful attempt was made to include lumber and the manufacturing of lumber in the second section. A motion to include in the second section all steel and manufactured steel was agreed to. Matches, jewelry and articles of ornament were added to the item of metals and manufactures so as to include them in the reduction.

On motion of Sargent a provision was added to the second section making the duty on iron wire rope and wire strand the same as on iron wire.

The motion of Cox to exempt from duty wire rope used in mining and rigging ships was rejected.

After a long and ineffectual effort to agree on the substitute to the second section, the committee rose and the House took a recess till evening.

The President sent a message to Congress to-day relative to the alleged abuses and ill treatment of immigrants on shipboard and after landing at our seaports, setting forth at length various impositions practiced upon immigrants and urging such legislation as will tend to protect them. The message concludes by stating that treaties with nations furnishing immigrants are necessary for their complete protection, and that efforts by the United States Government in that direction have been made for two years past and are now believed to be successful.

The President transmitted to the Senate an official correspondence relative to the persecution and oppression of Jews in Roumania, from which it appears that the action of our Government in the appointment of Peixotto as Consul at Bucharest exercised a good moral influence and resulted in preventing open violence and the reoccurrence of outrages.

National Park Superintendent.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—N. P. Langford of Montana is appointed Superintendent of the Yellow Stone National Parks.

Libel Suit

BALTIMORE, May 14.—The declaration in the libel suit of the Rev. M. Hoxston against the Baltimore American was filed in the Superior Court to-day; the damages are laid at $100,000.

A Church committee is about to commence the investigation of the Hoxston case.

M. E. General Conference

NEW YORK, May 14.—In the Methodist Conference to-day a memorial was presented asking the Conference to take action to induce ministers of the church to withdraw from unholy and unchristian idolatries of the Society of Freemasons. The various items were greeted with decisive laughter. A motion to table it was lost and went to the Committee on the state of the Church.

Greeley Withdraws from the Tribune

NEW YORK, May 14.—The Tribune has ceased to be a party organ, but the unexpected nomination of its editor at Cincinnati seems to involve it in a new embarrassment. All must be aware that the position of a journalist who is at the same time a candidate is at best irksome and difficult. He is fettered in action and restrained in criticism by the knowledge that whatever he may say or do is closely scanned by thousands eager to find in it what may be so interpreted as to annoy or perplex those who are supporting him as a candidate, and to whom his shackled condition will not permit him to be serviceable. The undersigned therefore withdraws absolutely from the conduct of the Tribune, and will henceforth until further notice exercise no control or supervision over its columns. (Signed)

HORACE GREELEY.

The editorial management of the Tribune lies on Whitlaw Reid.

The Mace-Coburn fight is finally fixed for August 15th. Mace starts for Philadelphia to-morrow to go into training.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

LOS ANGELES.—The Common Council Committee, accompanied by reporters of the press, visited the locality of the recent peat discoveries to-day. From the extent of deposits its value for fuel seems incalculable. Another appropriation will be made to more fully test the quality.

SAN RAFAEL, May 15.—In the District Court yesterday Judge Wallace decided the case of Hill & Devlin vs. Preston in favor of plaintiffs. The case involves the title to a large tract of land in Tomales.

The excursion of St. Ignatius Church, to-day was very large. It is estimated that 3,000 persons were present, and everything passed off very pleasantly.

VALLEJO, May 15.—John Hanford's residence was entered and robbed during his absence.

RENO, May 15.—About 1 o'clock this afternoon a boy 5 years old, son of C. Quinn, strayed from home to the upper part of town. Being unable to find him the citizens turned out this evening with lanterns, turned the water off Big English Ditch and found his body about three-fourths of a mile below town, lodged against a bush.

GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS

Germany has five daily and fourteen weekly papers edited by women.

Missouri thinks she will soon beat Connecticut in raising Havana tobacco.

The hangmen in Iowa now mourn like Othello that their occupation is gone.

The Hollywood ghost in Richmond, Va., has been arrested and lodged in jail.

An exemplary citizen of Terre Haute, Ind., takes [illegible] papers, 5 of them being daily.

An entire family in Illinois has been poisoned by eating poke root instead of parsnips.

Chicago is hard to suit. It disliked its fire last fall and is now grumbling about its water.

The torpid woman who lives on starvation has again come to light. This time at Dayton, Ohio.

Paducah, Ky., has had a bloodless duel. Both brave belligerents failed to appear on the ground.

A sacrilegious Bohemian of New York speaks of Horace Greeley as "the illustrious old Mohammedan."

A Chinese newspaper has entered upon its two thousandth volume. It has lost all its original subscribers.

A man in Warsaw, Ind., has a jail of his own. He bought it very cheap of the county, paying $210 for the old institution.

Explosions resembling distant artillery are still heard at intervals in the mountains of Inyo from the summit of Mount Breckinridge.

An average tree in a garden in Los Angeles is laden with ripe fruit, unopened buds, flowers and young oranges in every stage of growth.

There should be a fall in rubber goods soon. The Goodyear hard rubber patent expires May 6th. The Goodyear soft rubber expired some time ago.

A Preston, Conn., woman beats them all. She became the mother of seven children within an hour. She married a widower during that hour though.

A lady from the East gives birth to three healthy, well formed and handsome children on the Summit in one of Pullman's palace cars. This shows enterprise.

The Hartford Post says two-thirds of the people of Poquonoc pass Sunday in fishing for muskrats with shot guns, and that is the way the other third know when Sunday comes.

An irate colored female on a Tennessee train failing to find the expected prize in some "prize candy boxes" sold her, pitched into the newsboy and gave him a sound thrashing.

Charles Nordhoff says: "If you have been on a street car when it ran off the track and was dragged over the cobbles, you may easily know the sensations of a California earthquake."

They say that Ole Bull has discovered "a wonderful violin player in Leavenworth, Kansas, in the person of Miss Ella Fow. She is doubtless, as the Irishman said, 'equal to Fow and superior to none.'"

In the State of Illinois the school expenditures last year were $7,000,000. Six hundred and fifty thousand scholars attended, at 10,773 schools, where they were taught by more than 20,000 teachers.

By the recent earthquake in Antioch the American Protestant Church was injured and four of the American community killed. Less than 300 persons were killed at Antioch, but in the surrounding villages more than 1,600 perished.

An authentic autograph record of the discovery of Australia by a Portuguese commander named Manuel Godinho in 1601, at least three years before that country was visited by Dutch navigators, has been found in a library in Belgium.

Mrs. Fair, the California man slayer, is reported to have made $150,000 by judicious speculations while she was waiting to be hanged, and has consequently risen so much in public esteem that her acquittal on her new trial is confidently anticipated.

Incomprehensible as it may seem, the appeal of the Tichborne claimant for money with which to defend himself from the charge of perjury has already brought him nearly four thousand dollars. This amount has been subscribed chiefly in small sums, and is in great part the gift of workmen, cab drivers and others of the poor.

During the year 1871 the total amount paid for maintaining public schools in Massachusetts, of all grades, including wages, fuel, buildings, etc., $5,462,852 49, or for each person in the State between five and fifteen years of age $19 63, or for each man, woman and child in the State $3 75. The total amount of the school fund on the 1st day of January, 1872, was $2,238,360 98.

Professor Vincenzo Botta, who is good authority in regard to Italian matters, corrects President Woolsey's slighting allusion to the Italian Arbitrator at the Geneva Conference. The former says that the Arbitrator referred to is an author of distinction, an experienced statesman and an ardent admirer of our institutions. He was the intimate friend, supporter and counsellor of Cavour in the policy which has made Italy united and free. He is also President of the Royal Academy of Sciences in Turin.

The most important clue to the existence of a Polar passage yet discovered is the fact of the crew of the Polaris having seen, followed and killed a whale having in one of its fins a harpoon similar to those used in the South Pacific, and this happened in a region where, as Captain Hall says, "the sail of an American or European vessel had never been given to the wind before."

A lot of men are getting out ties east of Hillsboro. While at work yesterday one of them let his ax fly out of his hands, striking a man by the name of Loui Emet on the right hand, amputating the little finger and cutting the next one nearly off. The hand was dressed by Dr. Vite.

John Dall, foreman of the yard at the tannery corner of Ninth and Brannan, was caught in a fly wheel this evening about 6 o'clock and killed instantly. His body was crushed to a shapeless mass, and his bones nearly all broken. Death must have been instantaneous. He left a family in the city; was a German by birth. He was trying to put the belt back on the wheel when he was caught.

News from Japan—Great Fire at Yeddo

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—Arrived—Steamer Japan, from Yokohama, April 23d, with the following passengers for San Francisco: Mrs. C. D. Williams, R. S. McConnell, L. S. N. Mrs. Dillingworth, Mrs. M. Sparboro, W. A. Walker, George B. Baffey, J. B. Robertson, Mrs. Mosby, Miss M. A. Thompson, Miss D. M. Dow, D. A. Smith, I. Isaac, Rev. C. C. Baldwin. She has 3,650 packages tea, 348 silk, 5,036 merchandise; bulk of cargo being for San Francisco.

Following is the Associated Press dispatch received by her:

YOKOHAMA, April 23.—A frightful conflagration occurred in Yeddo during a severe gale, which destroyed a space of two or three miles, originating from one of the Princes' late palaces, in which troops were. The fire leaped whole blocks, burning places a mile from the beginning. An immense amount of property was destroyed. Where the wounded and lame were unable to escape, the officials dashed right and left with swords, and thus by an instant death saved many from a more awful one by fire. Thirty thousand people are houseless, but Government opened stores and fed all who applied. This fire has led the Government to permit foreigners to lease land in Yeddo by the owners making monthly reports, and will cause foreign money to be invested there to improve the city. A new plan of the burnt district will be made out to build upon, and wide streets and substantial buildings will only be allowed. The railroad to Yeddo, at last nearly completed, will commence running in a week.

The story that ten Japanese [illegible] the Micado is not believed, as the country is in profound peace, reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Government is about settling for the debts of the Daimios, and the policy will be to start a peace new and in future without money. The former Daimios are worse than powerless.

The Japanese fair is to be open soon at Kioto, the former residence of the Mikado, and hot bed of the anti foreign party. Foreigners, on depositing $300 to their Consul for good behavior, may visit there for 70 days. This [illegible] is made to test foreigners in the country. If their behavior is troublesome to the Government, no doubt Iwakura will be ordered to keep Japan a sealed book somewhat longer.

Enomatto, the late Tycoon's Secretary, who tried to take the island of Yeso, but was imprisoned for four years, has been appointed Superintendent of Yeso.

Independent Democratic Ticket in Jackson County

JACKSONVILLE, May 15.—The independent Democracy of this county met here to-day, nominated a full ticket and elected a Central Committee. The ticket is as follows: For the Legislature, V. S. Ralls, Isaac Miller and Eli Mason; for County Judge, A. M. Berry; Sheriff, Louis Zigler; County Clerk, James Crutcher; Treasurer, Henry Pape; Assessor, W. A. Childers; School Superintendent, James Fountain; Coroner, Dr. W. Jackson; Surveyor, David Dunlap; Commissioners, Thos. Smith and James Miller. It is generally considered by the best politicians here that the strength of the three tickets is about equally divided. There is much political excitement in this county, and a lively struggle is anticipated.

Weather to-day is warm and pleasant.

NASAL CATARRH.

[DISEASE TENDING TO CONSUMPTION.]

THIS IS A CHRONIC AFFECTION OF THE MUCOUS membrane of the nostrils or the [illegible], and [illegible] in irritation or inflammation, and attended by more or less discharge. It is one of the most [illegible] most disgusting, and finally, most destructive of [illegible] to the variable climate of our northern latitude.

In its early stage, [illegible] often fails to [illegible] the patient's attention, so insidious is its approach. This is an unfortunate circumstance, [illegible] the most favorable period for treatment is thus [illegible], and [illegible] of the peculiar disposition of this [illegible] to extend [illegible] to the frontal sinus, backward through the [illegible] tubes to the middle ears, and down through the larynx, trachea, and bronchia to the air cells of the lungs.

The discharge from the [illegible] part is at first a clear fluid, which may escape [illegible], [illegible] to be of a more than usually acrid character. As time goes on this gives place to a fluid that is thicker, and of a yellowish green color, and still later this may be [illegible] by thick flakes or [illegible].

In all the more advanced stages the [illegible] are generally of an offensive odor, [illegible] great [illegible] to one's friends and to the patient himself, while his sense of smell [illegible]. This [illegible] from the odor becomes almost beyond endurance, when, as [illegible] happens, the delicate bones of the nose [illegible].

Some cases early [illegible] the form of Dry [illegible]. There is then a feeling of [illegible] heat and [illegible] in the [illegible], which are often (one or both of them) closed by thickening of the mucous membrane, and thus a difficulty of breathing becomes a prominent [illegible].

On examining the nostrils in Chronic Catarrh, with instruments specially adapted to that purpose, we find their lining membrane thickened and of a [illegible] color than in health. There are small little points of ulceration, upon which the secretion becomes hardened and [illegible]. When these are picked off the [illegible] surface is [illegible] and frequently bleeds profusely.

In each case of Catarrh the prominent symptoms are determined by the direction in which the [illegible]. If this be upward there may be pain over and between the eyes, obstruction of the [illegible], causing the tears to flow over the [illegible], and [illegible] inflammation of the eyes. If backward, there will be thickening of the walls of the Eustachian tubes, and constant tendency to their [illegible] of the middle ear, buzzing noises in the head and [illegible] of hearing. When the extension is downward the voice becomes hoarse or whispering, and [illegible] cough [illegible] with expectoration and [illegible], to be followed too often by Consumption and Death.

In cases where the bones of the nose [illegible], not only is the offensiveness of the breath [illegible], but there is a liability to serious [illegible] which are flattening of the nose.

The swallowing of catarrhal [illegible] the functions of the stomach, causing [illegible] and loss of appetite. Debility, paleness, lassitude [illegible] and disturbance of mind soon follow. In some [illegible] the mental affection is one of irritability, the patient being unduly annoyed by all the little perplexities of life. In others the prominent [illegible] is that of melancholy or depression of spirits, where the invalid can see no hope for himself or his affairs.

Allusion has been made to the extension of Catarrh by continuity of surface along the natural air passages to the substance of the lungs, thus [illegible] and Death. In this connection it should also be remembered that the air which enters the lungs of a [illegible] patient is, every breath of it, poisoned by exhalations from the foul secretions of the diseased surface. By such air the blood cannot be properly purified and made fit to impart healthy vigor in its unending circuit to all and every part of the animal mechanism. One would [illegible] that this consideration alone would be sufficient to [illegible] every person thus afflicted to make early application for relief.

The treatment of Catarrh is in part constitutional, whereby the energies of the whole system are [illegible] to aid in expelling its destructive enemy. It is in part local, whereby the discharge is made less offensive, [illegible] and finally arrested, and [illegible] the surface is healed and restored to its normal condition.

By a [illegible] of new and ingenious apparatus, Dr. Aborn is able to Catarrh and all other affections of the respiratory organs, to apply his remedies directly to the [illegible] localities. The treatment is thus made more [illegible] as well as less dangerous. In many cases the first [illegible] of the topical treatment will change the character of the disease and materially purify the breath.

Our Unhappy Neighbor

The OREGONIAN says the Herald acknowledges that it expects to carry the next election by an imported vote. If not in so many words at least by necessary implication. Fears and rage hurry on our neighbor's mind. In the ecstasy of his anger at the prospect of defeat he does not stop to consider whether he is speaking correctly or not. Of course the OREGONIAN [illegible] edges nothing of the kind alleged. All former elections save one have shown large Republican majorities in this county. We have no need of any imported voters to carry it on this occasion. In the last general election we had a legitimate majority of over four hundred. In the last city election our majority was nearly as great. What sense is there in claiming Multnomah as a Democratic county when the Democratic party has carried it but once since 1850?

The Democratic organ should manifest more equanimity. To meet with defeat and to be compelled to give up such plundering jobs as the Portland police system and the litigant bill, whence our contemporary derives all its sustenance, will doubtless be somewhat embarrassing to it, and perhaps even calamitous. In this view of the case we may pardon much of the feeling evinced by our contemporary. Nevertheless a touch of the stoic philosophy would not be amiss to regulate its conduct and preserve its propriety. If bereft of Portland police and litigant patronage, our neighbor might appeal, and perhaps successfully, to the charity of a generous public for aid.

A Slender Thread

Nothing could so completely convince one of the hopelessness of Democracy in Multnomah county as the readiness which the managers of that party evince to "fuse" with any little combination of outsiders that offers to make a ticket. In this county there are always a certain sort of men, quasi Republicans, who are dissatisfied with the ticket that is put in nomination. Sometimes these people number a dozen and once or twice we believe, they have mustered two score. They are mostly a goodish sort of people moved in the main by honest intentions but tetchy, cranky, and wanting in the practical parts of character. It is their invariable habit to propose an "independent" or "fusion" ticket. In pursuance of their time-honored custom they are at it again. This is all right. Nothing could be more proper. But these gentlemen should not deceive themselves by the supposition that they are participating in political affairs. They are not participating to any appreciable extent. The election returns regularly furnish such evidence of that fact.

The Democracy of this county are reduced so low that they are actually seeking "alliance" for the coming election with the dozen or two impracticables who propose an independent ticket. The idea of such a "fusion" would be amusing if it were not so old. But it is very stale. It is much overworn. It might be thought formidable if it were not [illegible] thing that has been on exhibition here for the last two years.

Fusion has never prospered in Multnomah. Independents have always come to grief. Once or twice considerable alarm has been caused by their appearance, but they have always fizzled. This year the Republican ticket is unusually good and satisfactory. There is less discontent with it than with any ticket which that party has nominated here for many years. The announcement of an independent ticket and the talk of "fusion" may serve as a support for Democratic hopes for a day or two, but it can amount to nothing more. It is indeed a slender thread to hang great hopes upon. "The spider's most attenuated strand is cord, is cable, to it." The regular Republican ticket of Multnomah has always won by largest majorities when "fusion" was in the field.

In its next issue after the news of Greeley's nomination was received, the New York World said: "We frankly say Greeley is not our choice, and regret his nomination. Our opinion is that the Democratic National Convention will ignore Cincinnati entirely, and nominate a new ticket. We do not see any possibility in the future of the endorsement of Greeley by the Democratic party." If Adams had been nominated, the World states that it would have advocated his endorsement by the Democratic Convention, but in the case of Greeley it has no such advice to offer.

We have information which we deem of a trustworthy character to the effect that it is the intention of the parties who control the work on the locks at Wallamet Falls to overwhelm the legal voters of Clackamas county by voting on election day the whole body of men employed on the locks, not one in five of whom is a legal voter in the county. These people want more legislation, and they want another Legislature which can be manipulated. We trust our friends in Clackamas will take warning and be on guard.

The Salem Mercury informs us that "the object of the railroad magnate can easily be divined when we remember the corrupting influences he brought to bear on the last Legislature, and which he was only prevented from consummating by the integrity and purity of the Executive of the State." Very rough on the great Democratic majority in the Legislature, which we are told was thus corrupted and bought. Let us now try a Legislature of another kind.

Mr Greeley, in his letter withdrawing from the New York Tribune, speaks of the "unexpected" honor which was conferred on him by his nomination. "Unexpected" is good. Artemas Ward has left us an account of an "extempore" speech which he delivered to a serenading party who had called upon him in conformity with an agreement made by him with the said party a few hours before he having stipulated to pay them $50 for the "unexpected" attention.

The Republican State Convention of Delaware, has instructed for Grant and Colfax. That of Mississippi has also instructed for Grant. In every State that has so far been heard from (nineteen) the regular Republican committees and conventions have indorsed the administration of President Grant.

William Brice, Democrat, is out as an independent candidate against J R Neil for Prosecuting Attorney in the First Judicial District. This still further brightens the Republican prospect in Jackson county.

General Ferry, Republican, has been elected United States Senator from Connecticut for six years from the 4th of March next.

A suitable name for the new party— The Greeley Demigratz.

ANOTHER TRIUMPH FOR REPUBLICANS AND TOTAL FAILURE OF THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE [illegible] FROM [illegible] BENZINE

ST HELENS May 15 1872

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

SIR—To-day quite a large crowd of the citizens of Columbia county had collected and were waiting the arrival of the steamer Dixie Thompson with the candidates for Congress on board. At last [illegible] Tilden Wilson on first appearance was followed by Mr Burnett [illegible] the gangplank got up [illegible] stumbled, dropped his cloak and seemed weak-kneed and groggy on his pins. When after great difficulty he had straightened up his head and vacant eyes met the gaze of his waiting [illegible] on the wharf. They looked at each other then towards [illegible] on their [illegible] earth and whispered in an agony "Good God, he's drunk." All turned away and left him alone [illegible] long suffering [illegible] Democrat, Squire Bennett, who seeing and pitying his sad condition lent a helping hand, got him out of the ship and across the road. When at the Democratic saloon he weakened. They took him in and gave him four fingers of gin and that finished him. No wonder it would have ruined an elephant, made him forget kith and kin and go for anything on the top of ground. He was then carefully put to bed. Nature could stand no more. Anxious faces surrounded his bedside. Bile, bad whiskey and bedrock Democracy for once refused to assimilate. He cast up and felt better. The scene reminded one of the old apostolic time when the disciples washed each other's feet, for there was the [illegible] candal appendage of the Democratic county ticket rubbing Burnett's trotters. This mode of treatment proved a success, to a limited extent, and he was able to put in an appearance at the Court House where he opened the meeting by the sentence "You men of Columbia county have no more idea of the abuses of the South than the Indians on the Reservation." This was his stock in trade and is a verbatim report of his speech. He repeated it over and over until his hour was up, then took five minutes more, said it twenty times and quit.

Judge Wilson then followed in his usual happy manner and made a telling speech. There is not a candid, competent man but must confess his ability and earnest desire to forward the best interests of our young and growing State, and we predict for him success as a fitting crown, for none can better deserve it.

OBSERVER

Scraps of Early Oregon History

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Sir It seems that Rev J L Parrish is anxious to say something that will show that I am mistaken in some way in reference to the birth of the first boy or girl born of American parents on this coast and also in reference to the first American settler. The statement relative to Mr Cyrus Walker being the first white boy born on this coast was made a year or more before it was placed in permanent historical form and it now seems from Mr P's effort that the only correction to be made is now living. I had supposed Mr Beers was the first born now living until Mr Parrish's statement of May 6th when the matter is finally decided. I will cheerfully make the correction. In reference to Mr Bates' claim to being the first settler and having the first blacksmith shop, etc etc, I would prefer some evidence from some other source than that of Mr James Bates as we have positive evidence of the first mistake in reference to settlement and a continued residence in this country. It matters not what his profession may be, we still claim Solomon H Smith as the first and longest now living American settler on this coast. It does not suffice who ought to take the palm of first settler, but who is or was the first settler.

We are in receipt of a statement that the first Methodist camp-meeting held in the State was held in the grove now occupied by the Dayton school house. It was conducted by Revs W Roberts and Wilbur, Dr White, Leslie and the two Garrisons, in the autumn of 1845. Will our friend Parrish agree that the above is correct? Also the first saw mill built in Yamhill county was built in 1850. How is this?

The bones of the first mastodon were found in the race which broke and washed a hole out in which the bones were found. Some were petrified. Captain Couch took some of them to the States in the brig Maryland. Others were sent to Vancouver, thence to England. The date, as we have it, is 1837.

We have a statement from living witnesses that the first saw and grain mill was built by Felix Hathaway for S H Smith, T J Hubbard and E Young in Yamhill county, the last of whom finally bought out the other partners and put into the saw mill two granite stones and ground wheat for the settlers in 1837. Is this correct?

Respectfully etc W H GRAY,

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 16, 1872.

CITY.

MR. CONGLE'S REPORT.—It will be remembered that Mr. Congle was appointed a Committee of One by the City Council, at its last meeting, to consult with the Portland Gas Company with a view to perfecting arrangements for the illumination of the city clock. Mr. Congle submitted a verbal report to the Council last evening. The report, substantially, was that he had consulted with the Gas Company, and they had consented to furnish light 25 per cent. cheaper than ordinary rates. In the language of the immortal bard we can exclaim, "Things are workin'!" Heretofore that company have stubbornly refused to make more than 20 per cent. reduction. Now they have come down five per cent. Progress is the watch word, and our city Dads have caught the inspiration. The way matters are progressing, we shall have that clock lighted before a great while. In the meantime we shall pray ceaselessly on our limited supply of Christian patience, and wait for light.

HAVE NOBLY RESPONDED.—In our issue of Tuesday morning, we adverted to a sad case of want and sickness which existed in East Portland. On being apprised of the case, Judge Brenough, of that place, started out with a subscription yesterday morning, among the citizens. In a few hours he succeeded in raising the sum of $120 80. With this he repaired to the house where the people were living. On inquiry, he found that the old couple had some money, but that the two sons-in-law, who were sick and unable to work, were without a dollar. Already, the old people had paid out of their scanty means about $200. Learning of these facts, Mr. Brenough left the money he had collected, with the families of the two men. In this manner of relieving the wants of the needy and suffering, the citizens of East Portland have come nobly forward and set an example worthy of emulation.

INSPECTING TOUR.—Samuel Guthrie, Supervisor of Inspection of this District, accompanied by Captain George H. Flanders, Inspector of Hulls, and James Lotan, Inspector of Boilers, went up last week to Celilo to examine the hulls and boilers of the steamers Yakima and Shoshone. Everything being found safe and satisfactory they returned to this city. Certificates of inspection have been issued to these two boats, the yearly certificates having expired. The steamer Wenat, which has been on the ways at the bone yard for some time for repairs, was also examined on the 8th inst. and a certificate issued. Mr. Guthrie departed several days ago for the Sound, whither he goes on official business.

BASE LINE ROAD.—The work of planking the Base Line road, leading from the ferry landing to the Lone Fir Cemetery, goes vigorously ahead. Great quantities of lumber have been scattered along the route, and it is expected to have the road completed before long. The necessity for this road does not press itself on the consideration of the public in Summer, but when the mud acquires a depth of from one to three feet, those who are compelled to travel that way, are impressed with the fact that a plank roadway to the Cemetery would be a "good thing."

BENEFIT CONCERT.—As will be observed by a reference to the advertising columns, a concert will be given at Masonic Hall on next Friday evening, the proceeds of which will be applied to the Ladies' Relief Society of this city. Portland is generally noted for its charity and benevolence in all "good words and work." The object of this society is to comfort the sorrowing, assist the needy and provide for the spiritual and temporal wants of the poor, irrespective of creed or nationality. We need not urge our citizens to attend this concert.

PRELIMINARY SURVEY.—I street, from Third to Nineteenth, East Portland, is being surveyed for the purpose of ascertaining and establishing the grade. The mania for street improvements has seized upon our enterprising neighbors. We learn that several new streets will be opened the coming summer, besides a number of streets on which work has been expended already will be improved this summer. It is a matter of astonishment the amount of street and building improvements the past year has witnessed in our rapidly growing sister.

PUT IN FOR REPAIRS.—The American bark Corea, Phinney, master, which sailed some time in last December from New York for this port, encountered some very severe gales on the 24th of January. She lost her jib-boom and head gear by the violence of the sea, and was compelled to put into Portland Roads for repairs. The Corea is now overdue here with a load of iron, and accounts for her being behind time.

WASHINGTON GUARD.—This company is proverbial for getting up pleasant parties, so they have concluded to "try their hand" at a picnic excursion to Sauvie's Island, on Thursday, 23d inst. The members generally make such an effort every year, and the efforts always prove pleasant successes. As usual they will spare no preparations or expense to render every one who may attend as comfortable and happy as they are capable. For particulars see advertisement.

B. B. ORGANIZATION.—We understand that several members of the old Pioneer Base Ball Club are endeavoring to effect an organization of a new club, composed of a number of the most proficient in that "noble game" in this city. If the efforts are crowned with success, Portland can produce in a short time, and with but limited practice, a club that can play with any other club in the State and have no fears of laurels.

ANOTHER PICNIC.—Picnics at this season of the year are generally all the rage; but this time, the weather has resolved to put in a mild protest in the form of a gentle (?) shower or two. And now comes the scholars of the East Portland M. E. Sunday School, and propose to hold a picnic at Sullivan's Springs on next Friday morning, providing, always, that the weather clerk will signify his gracious approval.

PICNIC TO-MORROW.—Should the weather prove at all favorable to-morrow the Sabbath School of the Taylor street M. E. Church will hold their picnic at Sauvie's Island. It promises to be a very agreeable excursion. No preparations have been omitted that can in the remotest degree contribute to the pleasure of those who may attend.

PICTURES TAKEN.—All the pupils of the Primary Department of the East Portland School went down en masse yesterday, to the photograph gallery—which was a canvas tent pitched by the wayside—in that place, and had all their juvenile countenances transferred in a twinkle to paste board. The whole school was captured at a glance.

REBUILT.—Some time since the Asylum bridge, yielding to the influences of decay and the law of gravitation, concluded to "collapse." This it did in a very graceless manner and at a most unexpected time, as two funerals came near resulting from its fall. Since that time the bridge has been rebuilt and bids fair to stand many years.

CAMPAIGN CLUB.—Read the notice of the Campaign Club in another column. Every Republican in the city is cordially invited to attend. Let every man who will vote the Republican ticket in June, come forward and sign the roll. Several prominent speakers will address the meeting. Let Armory Hall be crowded this evening.

TAKEN THE PLACE.—The large wooden house, which, some days since, was removed from its place just south of Glisan's block on First street, has been permanently settled on G street between Third and Fourth, on the site formerly occupied by the brass foundry of Rogers & Nation, destroyed by fire some months ago.

READY.—The fine locomotive Yamhill, which has been at the engine house at the west side depot since her arrival here, being brightened up and repainted, is now ready to take the road when circumstances may require.

A KNOCK DOWN.—A pleasant little knock down occurred yesterday evening at the Metropolis Hotel, in which one of the parties received a slight cut below the eye, and a window was smashed in.

THE HART TRIAL.—The case of the United States vs M. S. Hart, in the United States District Court, was in progress all day yesterday. It bids fair to consume several days yet.

CITIZENSHIP.—Lawrence Higgins, a native of Ireland, was admitted to citizenship in the U. S. District Court yesterday.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

JOHN BURNETT COLLAPSES—JOE. WILSON FLAYS HIM AND HANGS UP HIS HIDE.

The Court House was well filled last night by our citizens to hear Messrs. Wilson and Burnett, the rival candidates for Congress, on the political situation. Judge Wilson opened the meeting by a well timed and forcible speech upon the real questions at issue before the people of the county to-day. He said he had found a party opposing him which had no platform of principles, that his opponent was continually wandering from one point of the compass to another, looking vainly for the lost principles of the Democratic party. Two years ago the discussion of the financial condition of the country consumed two-thirds of the time occupied by Democratic speakers, but now that party in its platform entirely ignored that great question. The Democratic party was afraid to meet their opponents on this question. The Chinese question was also dropped in the same way. That party now, by their very emphatic silence, acknowledge that the principles advocated two years ago were radically and essentially wrong. The speaker appealed to the citizens of Multnomah county to stand by Eastern Oregon. Their interests were exactly the same and each wanted the railroad from Salt Lake city to Portland, by which they would be equally benefitted. The Northern Pacific Railroad would benefit Eastern Oregon but little and would not tend to build Portland, but would raise up a great commercial city on Puget Sound. This much needed improvement of the P. D. and S. L. R. R., could only be secured by a support on the people of that party which was working for the construction of the measure. Mr. Burnett had voted in the Democratic State Convention against the incorporation in their platform of a resolution favoring the construction of that road, though the platform committee had proposed such a resolution, the Convention rejected it. His defense of the policy of the administration toward the Southern States was one of the most able efforts we have heard for a long time. He showed that eight years ago these States lay in ruin, in bankruptcy, and desolated by the scourge of an unholy war brought on and waged by them against the Government. From that condition they had all risen and were rising in strength and wealth by the energizing influence of the sound policy of the Republican party. He said Mr. Burnett found fault with the election law of Congress but claimed to be in favor of the very objects which that law was contemplated to accomplish.

We regret that we are unable to lay before our readers a full report of Judge Wilson's speech, for we are satisfied that a careful study of his arguments could not but convince the people that their interests are identical with the policy of the Republican party.

When Mr. Burnett began speaking a great portion of the crowd listened for a little while, but began to get tired of his bare assertions and dull platitudes about the issues that are now buried beneath the progress of events, and left the house. We do not indorse such action on the part of any one, but would recommend our friends when they go to a political meeting for the joint edification of both parties to summon up their patience and if possible bear even the boring speeches of so dull an orator as John Burnett, County Judge of Benton county. He took the position that the Democratic party has constitutional authority to interfere with the vested rights of corporations, which has been promulgated by the Herald, and so effectually refuted by the Republican press of the State; a doctrine repugnant to every common sense, legal or reasonable construction of the wording of our organic law. He devoted a great portion of the time assigned him in talking about the great defection!!! in the Republican ranks by the desertion of Horace Greeley and a few other sorehended office-seekers. He quoted largely from H. G. to prove that Democrats were not responsible for the failure of the amnesty bill, and deplored the condition of 200,000 rebels who were not allowed to hold all the offices. Quoting Greeley in Democratic speeches is a "new departure," but we don't blame Mr. Burnett, for we suppose he wanted to put in all his time, and could not think of any one else. He endeavored to say something about the syndicate operations of Secretary Boutwell, got completely swamped, and showed that he could not even understand the meaning of the terms he used. As an argument, his defense of the Ku Klux, from his stand point, was the most meritricious part of his speech. Upon that subject he got quite enthusiastic. He entirely failed to answer any of the several questions pertinent to the issues before the people which Judge Wilson propounded to him in the opening, and charged him to answer. He utterly ignored everything in relation to internal improvements, all former positions assumed by his party heretofore on the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments and nearly all the material questions of the present day. In regard to all amendments to the Constitution after the 13th, he said he did not indorse them, showing that he was in favor of turning over the defenseless negroes and loyal people of the Southern States to the lawless elements which held sway there before the passage of the 14th and 15th amendments, another advocacy of mob law which is becoming one of the "eternal principles." He said if Boss Thief Tweed was in the Senate of New York, he was there by the sufferance of the Republicans, who were in the majority in that body, when he (Burnett) ought, though we suppose he did not know that Tweed, although elected by the Democratic party through fraud, had never presented his credentials at the State Capital nor asked for a seat in the Legislature, and therefore could not be expelled by that body. Burnett wanted him put out before he got in. In short, Mr. Burnett's speech last night was a failure, and showed that in the discussion of national politics he was at sea without the rudder of good understanding or the compass of good judgment.

Judge Wilson's closing speech of fifteen minutes was a fine oratorical effort, and, contrary to his request, he was frequently interrupted by tremendous bursts of applause. In a few words he completely riddled the sophistries of his opponent, and left no hole by which John could get out of the net which he had helped to weave around himself by the many weak points in his futile effort to defend himself.

We have seldom seen more enthusiasm manifested than was shown by about four fifths of the audience, which was Republican, during this speech; nor more utter despair than sat upon the countenances of the other fifth, which was Democratic.

The meeting closed with tumultuous cheers by nearly the entire crowd for Wilson.

THOSE JUGGLERS.—The Japanese jugglers are coming this way, and no mistake. They propose to give their first performance at Oro Fino Theater on next Tuesday, the 21st instant. The press speaks in the most laudatory terms of their truly wonderful acrobatic feats and jugglery. If what the exchanges say of their performances is true, they are worthy of public support. For variety, skill, grace and general cleverness, this troupe is said to surpass anything ever witnessed on the Northwest coast. It is a novelty in the show line with which our people have not been favored, and will no doubt be both appreciated and patronized.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

CHOICE PROPERTY.—Some very choice real estate is offered for sale by Messrs Parrish, Watkins & Cornell, whose advertisement can be found in our advertising columns. We call the special attention of readers to the fact.

AT HOME.—Those who have had occasion to travel along Front street, and there are few who have not, must have observed the extensive Clothing establishment of Jos. Kohn & Co. There is no house north of California that can display to the public such an immense stock of Clothing as that of Jos. Kohn & Co, 91 Front street. Any one visiting this firm will feel perfectly at home with the gentlemanly clerks attached to this house. To be entitled, try them.

THE UMATILLA HOUSE at The Dalles is now completed and furnished in every respect unsurpassed. The office is the most cheerful and pleasant in the State, and the dining hall is unequaled. The rooms are all newly furnished. The house has twelve suites of rooms with stoves in them for families. The new house stands much higher than the old one. The ceilings are four feet higher, which adds greatly to the cheerfulness of the rooms. The table is kept in a style to correspond fully with the appointments.

HOUSEKEEPERS, ATTENTION.—Mounsetts, No. 1?? First street, received by last steamer a large invoice of Crockery, Glassware, and other articles in his particular line, and proposes to sell the same to the public at prices that cannot fail to satisfy everybody. [illegible]

COURT HOUSE AT SALEM.

The erection of a new and more commodious Court House at Salem has been a want long and urgently felt by the citizens of Marion county. The present old Court House building has been rendering service for nearly twenty years past. Being a wooden building, it has nearly succumbed to the wear and tear of the elements.

The paint has years ago been washed away, the ceiling is in a crumbling condition, notwithstanding the frequent repairs made from time to time, and the old tenement has been reduced to a generally dilapidated state of preservation. The subject of the construction of a more suitable Court House has been agitated for a long time past, but the matter was never taken into serious consideration until within the last year.

Through the courtesy of Mr. W. W. Piper, we have examined the plans and specifications now in his office, for this new and much needed public improvement.

The building is to be constructed of substantial brick. It will be two stories high besides a basement and attic. At both the front and rear of the building, two wings cross the main structure at right angles, and imparts a rather unique and unusual appearance to buildings designed for Court purposes. However the general effect of the edifice, as it appears from the plans, is both pleasant and imposing.

The entire length of the building is 97 feet including the steps leading up from the rear and front, 120 feet; width of the wings at each end, 90 feet; width of the building in the center between the wings, 56 feet.

The hight of the stories will be divided as follows: basement, 12 feet; first story, 16 feet; second story, 22 feet; attic, 13 feet. Style of architecture will be modern.

The basement will be apportioned to the jailer, and the criminals placed under his charge. This portion of the structure will be divided as follows: A large hall, 12½x28½, a dining room, 13½x22¼, a kitchen, 13½x16, a narrow hall, adjoining the kitchen, 14x13½, a sitting room, 13½x20¼; a bed room, 16½x20¼, a pantry, 6x11 7-12, a store room, 5x9¾ (these apartments occupy the front portion and are intended for the jailer). In the rear are eight iron cells, three of which are 10x9¾, one 11¼x9¾, one 8x11¼, one 10x8, two 10x9¾. In the same part is a large room, use not designated, 15½x20¾, also a large corridor, and hall 6 feet in width, which extends around the cells just described. This hall is barred in four places by strong and secure iron gates, so that if a prisoner should effect an escape from the cells, he could not pass these barriers.

The first floor from the ground is subdivided as follows: Sheriff's office, 21 feet and five inches by 28 feet; Auditor's office, 21x28, a corridor, 27½x29¼, from which two large stairways, 4½ feet wide, lead up into the Court Room, from each side. From this corridor a long hall, 12 feet wide, leads to the rear end of the building, and from this hall two other halls, each 8 feet wide, traverse the wings in each direction; a private passage leading under an archway, from the Auditor's office to the office of the Clerk of the Court, 19½x6½; Clerk's office, 27½x20¾; Surveyor's office, 21½x15½; office of the County Judge, 15½x15½; County Court room, 29½x19¾; Treasurer's office, 19½x13.

The second story, which will contain the Circuit Court room, and will be the principal story of the edifice, is divided as follows. A grand jury room, 28x21¾; a large corridor, 27½x30, from which two large stairways lead up to the attic; Circuit Judge's office, 16½x13½; witness room, 21½x13½, a court room in which the Circuit Court will be held, 60½x49¾. This room is divided by a railing. From the railing which separates the main auditorium from "within the bar," to the rear of the building, the distance is 21½ feet, and is of course as wide as any portion of the court room. Four feet from the railing toward the stand occupied by the Judge, is a long semi-circular table for the use of practicing attorneys. The table is four feet wide. Distance from the table to the Clerk's desk, 2 feet. Still farther back is the Judge's stand, which occupies an elevated position, and is 6x4 feet. On each side of the room is placed in the usual manner two jury boxes—one 12x3 and the other 13x6 feet. In addition, on each side of the court room and in the rear wings, will be two jury rooms—one 21½x15½, and the another 12½x15½, a hall 15½x19.

The attic will be divided into offices. The roof will be French Mansard.

A tower 136 feet high from the ground will be erected on the front end of the building. The intention is to place a city clock in the tower with four dials fronting the cardinal points of the compass. On the top of this tower will be placed a bronze statue representing the Goddess of Justice holding in one hand a sword and in the other a pair of balances.

Porticoes in front of the first and second stories will be erected, supported by iron columns, surmounted with Corinthian caps. When completed in accordance with the plans and specifications, this Court House building will be among the finest edifices in the State, and will be an ornament to Salem and a useful accession to the improvements of that town. Work is progressing as rapidly as practicable, and the building will probably be ready for occupancy by the first of next January. Piper & Burton are the architects. Mr. Piper is also the Superintendent of construction. The contractors are Messrs. Boothby, Miller & Co.

The Baker Statue.

[From the Washington Republican.]

Hon. A. A. Sargent, Representative from California, justly appreciating the great merits and public services of the late Senator Edward Dickinson Baker, has declared the general sentiment and merited the thanks of the nation by the bill he has just introduced in Congress, providing for a marble statue of Baker, to be placed in the Capitol, which bill has been unanimously approved by the Committee on Appropriations, to whom it was referred. It is eminently proper that the proposed honor to the memory of Baker should be awarded by Congress in behalf of the people of the whole nation.

In his entire public career Baker evinced the comprehensive spirit of a national representative. Formally, on various occasions, it is true, he represented States in the functions of the Representative, Senator, and commander in the military service, but in whatever office, "he was a representative of the nation." It was not as Senator from Oregon, or as the great Californian, that he was greatest. His intellectual vision was powerful enough to discern the bonds which connect the great States of this Republic. He saw that it was the organic union of all the States that constituted the national status—the national existence, the national power—and gave us consideration before the world. He was furthermore a representative of the age and the race. Prompt, fearless, progressive, he was fitted for this age of struggle and revolutions, the age of steam and lightning. You see it flashing from his eye, and hear it quivering in his voice, and feel it trembling in his nerves. He wasted no time in mourning over inevitable issues, but promptly accepted them. When the vast interests of humanity were imperiled he did not hesitate, but acted. Seeing the eyes of struggling millions turned from other continents imploringly to our bleeding country, he answered, "American freedom shall survive the shock;" and we well remember the priceless influence of his eloquence and brave example in inspiring the heroism by which that terrible shock was overcome.

We know of no personage connected with the public transactions of our country whose statue would be more interesting to our people than that of Baker, the poet, orator, statesman, hero—in each and all vivified by the high virtue of fervid patriotism, distinguished in the two Houses of Congress for business ability and eloquence, and in two wars as an exemplar of valor closing his career by an act of devotion like that of Curtius—bridging with his body the gulf of rebellion for others to pass to victory.

An atmosphere of romance signalized his career and illuminates his memory, such as would continually surround and intensify the impression of his statue.

Violating the Constitution.

[From the Jacksonville Sentinel.]

As our Democratic friends are always preferring such unbounded administration for the Constitution, we propose to show in what manner they observe it. Article XIII., Section 1 of the Constitution of Oregon, reads as follows:

"Sec. 1. The Governor shall receive an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars. The Secretary of State shall receive an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars. The Treasurer of State shall receive an annual salary of eight hundred dollars. The Judges of the Supreme Court shall each receive an annual salary of two thousand dollars. They shall receive no fees or perquisites whatever for the performance of any duties connected with their respective offices; and the compensation of officers, if not fixed by this Constitution, shall be provided by law."

Here is a clear and unmistakable provision in the supreme law of this State, forbidding the Treasurer or Secretary of State from receiving "any fees or perquisites whatever" for the performance of any duties connected with their respective offices. Now comes the last Legislature of Oregon, and in the law regulating [illegible] insurance companies and express companies enacts as follows:

"Sec. 6. The fees of the Secretary of State for carrying out such portions of this act as pertain to the duties of his office shall be as follows:

For recording each certificate of deposit and [illegible] certificate to depositors, [illegible]ty-five dollars;

"For [illegible] lice[illegible] to life insurance agents or [illegible], annually, ten dollars;

"For commission on the sale of stamps, as provided in section four of this Act, five per cent. of the amount so sold.

"Sec. 10. A corporation or company offering to file a certificate of deposit with the State Treasurer shall pay such Treasurer a fee of ten dollars therefor."

We would like to know what warrant the last Legislature—a body that will ever be noted for its jobbery, its corruption, its bribery, and general worthlessness—had to make any such enactments and legislate money from the people into the pockets of public servants, in plain violation of an emphatic declaration of the Constitution. These officers had been duly elected, with a fair understanding what their compensation would be. They, in taking the fees allowed them by the Legislature, are violating their oaths to obey and observe that Constitution, and doing just what it forbids. It is unlawful for them to pocket a fee of any kind, and is a species of legal robbery, questionable even in a moral sense. It may be pleaded that Republican officials have done the same thing, but the plea will not save those who are always professing reverence for the supreme law. We would like to hear the views of the Democratic press in this State with regard to this matter. Every Democratic editor is a "constitutional lawyer," and of course they can all throw light on the subject.

A good story is told of a mechanic in a Vermont village who recently put out on a placard, "I Will Not Trust No More," whereupon his rival across the street erected over his shop door the words, "Trust Here Forever." The factional fight in Democracy is carried on in imitation of the Green Mountain joiners' competition. The Opossums will not [illegible] to their views "no more," but the Bourbons will trust their stereotyped principles forever. Of course their banners lead to the same platform really, but the double negative is deceiving our poor, old, honest, unschooled, self-made Greeley in a most shocking manner.

Long John Wentworth, in a speech to the Illinois delegation to the Cincinnati Convention, said that the movement must look to the Democratic party for nine-tenths of its support. "Paul may plant," he exclaimed, "and Apollos may water, but the Democratic party must give the increase." This sentiment was greeted with immense cheering.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, May 15, 1872.

Gold in New York to-day, 114⅛.

Portland Legal Tender rates, 87½c buying, 88c selling.

Wheat in Liverpool, 12s 9d@13s.

At Walla Walla Wool is quoted at 43@47½c per lb.

The sailing of the steamship Idaho for Victoria and Puget Sound was delayed till this morning at 5 o'clock. She took the following freight for Victoria: 2,007 sks flour, 34 sks wheat, 1 pkgs machinery, 25 bbls mess pork, 1 cask hams, 1 kg butter, 1 kg lard. Total value, $4,396.

Receipts of Wool at San Francisco are much lighter than for the corresponding time last year. Prices are nominal and tend downward. A report from San Francisco says that in view of the condition of things at the East, together with the advance in gold and the dull condition of the goods market, that it is next to impossible to get up any activity on this side.

The gain of population to the Pacific Coast is pretty accurately shown by the passenger arrivals in California. The through passenger arrivals by the Central Pacific Railroad, during the month of April, numbered 3,440. During the same time, 1,886 arrived by water, of which 1,205 came from China and Japan, 322 from Panama, 102 from Australia, 54 from Mexico, 41 from the Hawaiian Islands, and 35 from British Columbia. The departures by rail numbered 1,699, and by water 800. The total arrivals by both routes exceeded the total departures by 2,606, which is the gain in population for the period. Since the 1st of January, the arrivals have amounted to 11,030, and the departures to 7,473, showing a gain to the Pacific Coast of 3,561 in population by immigration.

The San Francisco Bulletin undertakes to say what reasons exist for the advance in gold. One of its reasons is this: "Of late, the Treasury balance has ranged from sixty to one hundred and twenty millions in gold. So long a Secretary Boutwell indulges in this little experiment of hoarding gold, it will advance in the market in spite of all outside attempts to keep it down." The Secretary is not "hoarding gold of late" to any greater extent than he has formerly done. Nor has he "hoarded" at all to the extent stated above. For most of the money held in the Treasury the Government is liable, it being due for interest, coin certificates and the like. So that the actual sum "hoarded" by the Secretary ranges from ten to twenty millions only, and this is necessary to hold some check on the gold gamblers. Other reasons for the rise the Bulletin states thus: "Looking at the imports for the first quarter of the present year, we find that they exceed $113,000,000. As we are sending very little forward in the line of breadstuffs or other produce, we must foot these enormous bills in gold, and in the meantime pay the duties on our excessive imports exclusively in gold. Then the interest on our bonds held abroad is another item to be paid in gold. Putting these facts together, we have the principal reasons for the rise in gold." There is something in these last reasons, but we are not now for the first time paying duties and interest in gold. We have been at it a long time, and we paid as much when gold was 110 as we are now paying when gold is 114. It seems to us that the chief reason for the advance in gold is to be sought in the unsettled state of our foreign relations, which, though not threatening war, nevertheless causes some trepidation in financial circles. Gold is also scarce in Europe since the French indemnity payments, which are being hoarded by Germany.

Real Estate Transactions.

WEDNESDAY, May 15, 1872.

David Simon and wife to Wm. Masters, 20 53-100 acres of land in Multnomah county—$2,500.

Joseph Knott and wife to Reuben Riggs, block 297 in Coffin's Addition to Portland—$1,200.

Markets.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—The quotations regularly sent are for ordinary jobbing lots to grocers and others. Large lots can always be bought for considerably less. The following are prices producers get for considerable lots:

Flour—Oregon extra, $5 75@6; superfine, $4 75@5; California extra, $5 75@6 25; superfine, $4 75@5 25.

Wheat—Oregon white, $2@2 10.

Following are ordinary jobbing prices as quoted by the San Francisco Bulletin:

Flour—There is decidedly an improved tone to the market. Several causes have contributed to this result. Oregon receipts are on the wane and little more will be received this season; the price of Wheat has been advanced; the increased cost of manufacture; demand from New York and free shipments, all add to the cause. Local millers raised the price 12½c a few days ago and today agreed to make another advance of 12½c, so that best city extra is now jobbing at $6 62½ and other brands at $5 75@6 50. Advices of sales in New York at $12 have been received. Further shipments of 2,500 bbls since Monday.

Wheat—Choice held at $2 10. It is possible $2 12½ would be paid for a desirable lot.

Barley—Range, $1 35@1 55.

Oats—Range, $1 45@1 65.

Potatoes—New Mission, $2@2 50; old crop, 50@70c.

Onions—New crop red, 3@3½c.

Corn Meal—Mill price, 2@2¼c.

Rye—Nominal, $2 10.

Wool—One of the principal receivers gives his sales for the week at 100,000 lbs and another 155,000 lbs. Market still inactive and reliable quotations are difficult to name. Holders are firm and expect buyers to come to their views. Fair to good clean spring, 42½@47½c.

Hides—1,090 California dry, 18½@19½c; 246 Mexican dry, 19½@18½c; 1,030 salted, 8½@9½c.

Tallow—We quote 9c as a fair average price for a good article.

PLANTATION BITTERS!

S. T.—1860—X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT;

FOR MAN AND BEAST.

Probably few articles have ever had so extensive a Sale, while none have been more universally beneficial than the MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT. Children, Adults, Horses and Domestic Animals, are always liable to accident, and it is safe to say, that no family can pass a single season without some kind of an emollient being necessary. It becomes a matter of importance then to secure the best.

Over three hundred Livery stables in the city of New York alone are using the MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT, in all of which it gives unusual satisfaction.

CAUTION.—The genuine is wrapped in a fine Steel Plate engraving with "G. W. Westbrook, Chemist," and "Trade Mark, MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT," engraved across the face of each wrapper. The whole bears the proprietor's private United States Revenue Stamp, and not a common stamp, as used by druggists.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE STATE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AT PORTLAND, MARCH 20, 1872.

The Union Republican party of Oregon, in Convention, makes this declaration of its principles and policies.

1. To the Constitution of the United States and all its amendments we pledge our unfaltering allegiance, to its authority a willing obedience, to its full and legal construction and enforcement our constant support.

2. That the success of the present National Administration in reducing the public debt, diminishing and equalizing taxation, administering every branch of public affairs with economy and efficiency, forming and improving the civil service, enforcing the laws without fear or favor, protecting the nation's wards with paternal care against the cruel avarice of speculation and fraud, and maintaining friendly relations with Foreign Powers, has been such as to command the approbation of the great majority of the American people, and justly entitle it to the confidence and commendation of every true Republican.

3. We regard the payment of our national debt, in full compliance with all legal obligations to all our creditors everywhere, and in accordance with the true letter and spirit of its contracting, as no longer a question in issue, but that we may be clearly understood, we denounce all forms and degrees of repudiation of that debt, as affirmed by the Democratic party and its sympathizers, as not only national calamities, but positive crimes, and we will never consent to a suspicion of lack of honor or justice in its complete satisfaction.

4. We admit of no distinctions between citizens, whether of native or foreign birth; and therefore we favor the granting of full amnesty to the people of those States lately in rebellion, and we here pledge the full and effective protection of our civil laws to all persons voluntarily coming to or residing in our land.

5. We favor the encouragement of railroads by the General Government of the United States, and hold that such disposition should be made of the public lands as shall secure the same to actual settlers only, in quantities not exceeding 160 acres.

6. That while we are in favor of a revenue for the support of the General Government, by duties upon imports, sound policy requires such adjustment of those duties on imports as to encourage the development of the industrial interest of the whole country; and we recommend that policy of national exchange which secures to the working men liberal wages, to agriculture remunerative prices, to mechanics and manufacturers an adequate reward for their skill, labor and enterprise, and to the Nation commercial prosperity and independence.

7. We believe that popular education is the sole true basis and hope of a free government, and shall ever oppose any diversion of, or interference with the common school funds or lands in this State, for any other than their legitimate purpose, and we condemn the act of favoritism by the last Legislature whereby two hundred thousand dollars, taken from the school fund, were granted to a corporation consisting mainly of Democratic leaders and party favorites, for the construction of a work which another corporation, entirely sound and responsible, offered to construct for seventy five thousand dollars less, and that we are in favor of the passage by the Legislature of an efficient school law, such as shall secure to all citizens of our State a good common school education.

8. We find no terms sufficiently strong to express our disapproval of those acts of the last Legislature whereby the swamp lands belonging to this State have been taken from the needy settlers, and given without limit or proper competition in price to the land grabbers and speculators whereby the emoluments and salaries of State officers have been unconstitutionally increased, and the taxes increased thousands of dollars by the creation of new and unnecessary offices and salaries, for the purpose of providing for party favorites and whereby the citizens of our metropolis have been deprived of and denied the right of controlling their police authority. And we equally condemn the administration of our State officers and laws as extravagant, reckless, illegal and destructive, and we rightfully charge all those results as the acts of the Democratic party.

9. We are in favor of the United States giving to each honorably discharged soldier who served in the armies of the United States to put down the rebellion a warrant for a homestead of 160 acres of public lands.

10. That we demand the repeal of the so-called libel act, which was devised to support pauper Democratic newspapers at the public expense.

11. That the Republican party of this State are in favor of the General Government extending aid toward building a railroad from Portland, Oregon, to Salt Lake City, and from Jackson county to Humboldt, and we hereby pledge our party representatives to the support of the same.

12. That the indiscriminate licensing of persons to sell spirituous liquors without being placed under proper responsibilities for the abuse thereof, having been found by experience to promote the growth of crime and pauperism, and thereby to seriously increase the rate of taxation, the Republican party recognize the right and duty of the law-making power to prevent and limit the evils and abuses of such sale, so far as concerns the public good and is consistent with individual liberty, by refusing to license other than law-abiding and responsible persons, who can furnish sufficient sureties for good conduct.

13. That the Republican party of Oregon is in favor of obtaining assistance from the General Government for the construction of a wagon road from the city of Portland to the Dalles, recognizing this as a most important and necessary improvement for the State.

14. We affirm that the continuance in power of the Republican party is the only sure preservation of national peace and prosperity, and for reasons therefor we point to its brilliant record in the late civil war, to a complete authority, to a united sisterhood of thirty-seven States, [illegible] Territories rapidly maturing into State life, [illegible] freed from the taint of human slavery, to equal civil and enlarged citizenship, to our national standing at home and abroad, to the work of vigorous reform in all departments of authority or trust, to an unexampled prosperity, to an overflowing and well [illegible], and to the unparalleled peace and prosperity everywhere [illegible] our broad domain, and these are our pledges for the future.

15. We hail the "New Departure" of the late Democratic party taken by the action of their conventions in seven States as an affirmation of the principles for which the Republican party has contended for the last ten years and in the "Passive Policy" of that party, already as [illegible], we recognize an acknowledgment of their hopelessness of success in the coming Presidential campaign.

Section 5. That portion of the roadway occupied by the Oregon Central Railroad Company's track shall be covered with planks four inches thick, laid parallel with the rails and as near thereto as practicable, the planks to be securely nailed to the ties and finished up neatly.

Section 6. The plank roadway on that portion of the street lying between the ends of the railway ties and the curbs shall be laid as follows: There shall be laid on each side three sleepers 4x8 inches, firmly imbedded in the earth for the covering plank to rest upon; one at the ends of the railway ties, and at a right angle therewith, the other two at equal distances from the railway ties and the gutter planks. The gutter planks shall be sixteen inches wide, so laid that the upper side shall be at least eight (8) inches below the top of the curb and spiked thereto, with such slope toward the cross streets as will give good drainage. The stringers upon which the covering planks are to rest, shall be four inches thick, set edgewise so as to form a side to the gutter, and be securely spiked to its bottom planks, the width of the stringer to be determined by the depth of the gutter and slope of the street. The covering planks shall be four inches thick, not less than eight (8) nor more than twelve (12) inches wide, and so laid on the stringers as to present a slope of not more than four inches from the railway ties to the gutter plank.

Section 7. On the intersections with the cross streets the roadway shall be laid as follows: Instead of crosswalks with aprons, the covering planks for a distance of at least six feet each side of the round corner blocks shall extend across the street, resting at either end on, and let into, the sidewalk curb, so as to present a uniform surface with the sidewalk and center of the street. The covering planks between the crosswalks shall be laid level with the covering planks on the railway ties and parallel therewith eight feet each side of the center line of the cross street, six feet outside of the railway ties on the line of Fourth street and four (4) feet on North Fourth street. The stringers shall be 4x8 inches, and in no case more than six feet apart. The gutters on the north side of the cross streets and east and west sides of Fourth and North Fourth streets shall be sixteen inches wide at all points, but shall not extend across the roadway in either direction. The stringer forming the outer side of the gutter shall be so laid that the top shall be flush with the under side of the plank forming the crosswalks, with such bevel toward the side line of the street as may be desired to make good drainage. The sleepers from the inner edge of the crosswalk to a line running from the corner of the street to a point where the flat roadways intersect shall be so beveled in each direction that the top of the covering plank where said line intersects the gutter shall be four inches below the top of the curb. On the south side of the cross streets the gutters across Fourth and North Fourth streets shall be twenty-four inches wide, and not less than eight inches deep in the clear. The covering plank shall form the top, the sides serve as sleepers and the bottom plank be securely spiked thereto. All plank used in the gutters shall be four inches thick. The bottom plank of the gutter shall be laid at such depth that at each corner the top of the covering plank shall be four inches below the curb at the line of intersection, as specified for the north side of the cross streets.

Section 8. Under every joint in the stringers of gutter planks a strip of plank two feet long, eight inches wide and two inches thick shall be firmly imbedded in the earth, the stringers and gutter planks shall be sixteen feet in length, as near as may be, and at every joint and stringer the planking shall be nailed with two seven inch spikes, to weigh five to the pound, all spikes shall be driven at right angles to the surface of the plank and at least one-fourth of an inch below the surface. Joints to be broken alternately, and all the work to be done in a workmanlike manner and finished up neatly.

Section 9. The provisions of Sections 11 and 12 of Ordinance No. 793 shall apply to all lumber and material used in the improvement herein provided for.

Section 10. The Committee on Streets and Public Property are hereby authorized to advertise for, receive proposals and enter into contract with the lowest responsible bidder, or bidders, for that part of the work lying outside of the ends of the railway ties, and the Oregon Central Railroad Company are hereby directed and required to complete that portion of the work lying within the outer lines of the railroad ties, within the time and in the manner specified in this Ordinance.

Section 11. The improvement shall be completed to the satisfaction of the Committee on Streets and Public Property, and the Street Commissioner, who shall have the supervision thereof.
